Notice of Submission of the Amendment to Tender Offer Notification and the Amendment to the “Notice of the Commencement of Tender Offer for Shares in ELK CORPORATION”

Canon Marketing Japan (the “Bidder” or the “Company”) has, with regard to the tender offer for common shares in ELK Corporation (Code: 9833, listed on the second section of the Osaka Securities Exchange, hereinafter referred to as the “Target Company”) (hereinafter referred to as the “Tender Offer”), submitted on May 13, 2011 an amendment to tender offer notification to the Director of the Kanto Local Finance Bureau pursuant to Article 27-8, Paragraph 2 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (Act No. 25 of 1948 including any subsequent amendments thereto; hereinafter referred to as the “Act”). Said submission of an amendment to tender offer notification will not change the purchasing terms (as defined in Article 27-3, Paragraph 2, Item 1 of the Act) of the Tender Offer in any way. In conjunction with said submission, please be informed that the contents of the “Notice of the Commencement of Tender Offer for Shares in ELK CORPORATION” dated April 21, 2011 are amended as follows, with specific changes in the text indicated with underline.

1. Purpose of the Tender Offer

(3) Post-acquisition management policy

(Before amendment)

The Company, as of the date of this release, has the intention to adopt a post-acquisition management policy (1) to strive to realize further business growth by positioning the Target Company as the core company in the medical equipment business, (2) to maintain, in principle, the employment of the current employees and the current management team of the Target Company, (3) to maintain, in principle, the current brand of the Target Company for the time being, and (4) to positively consider the implementation of human resource exchanges between the Company and the Target Company by way of temporary transfer and other arrangements. Upon successful completion of the Tender Offer, the Company will, under the management policy outlined above, accelerate the realization of synergy effects in various business domains through the closer relationship and the integrated business management between the Company and the Target Company. The Company and the Target Company have already agreed that the Target Company will submit to the 55th annual general meeting of shareholders to be held on June 22, 2011 (the “Annual General Shareholders’ Meeting”) a proposal regarding the election of officers that the candidates for directors and corporate auditors designated by the Company be elected as the directors and corporate auditors of the Target Company. The Founding Family Shareholders have also agreed in the Tender Offer Agreement that when such proposal regarding the election of officers is submitted to the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting, they will cast their vote in support of the proposal and that they will exercise all other voting rights at the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the instructions by the Company. Furthermore, in the Tender Offer Agreement, Mr. Haruo Nishimoto, the Director and Chairman of the Target Company, has agreed that he shall, upon completion of the Tender Offer, promptly resign from the office of director of the Target Company.

According to the Target Company, the Target Company passed a resolution at a board of directors' meeting held on April 21, 2011 that it maintains dividend forecast of 10 yen per share for the fiscal term ending March 31, 2011 as well as that it will not distribute any interim dividend for the interim period ending September 30, 2011. Incidentally, according to the Target Company, its basic policy has been to limit the frequency of dividend distribution to once per year.

Upon successful completion of the Tender Offer, the Company will, under the management policy outlined above, accelerate the realization of synergy effects in various business domains through the closer relationship and the integrated business management between the Company and the Target Company. The Company and the Target Company have already agreed that the Target Company will submit to the 55th annual general meeting of shareholders to be held on June 22, 2011 (the "Annual General Shareholders' Meeting") a proposal regarding the election of officers that the candidates for directors and corporate auditors designated by the Company be elected as the directors and corporate auditors of the Target Company. The Founding Family Shareholders have also agreed in the Tender Offer Agreement that when such proposal regarding the election of officers is submitted to the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting, they will cast their vote in support of the proposal and that they will exercise all other voting rights at the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the instructions by the Company. Furthermore, in the Tender Offer Agreement, Mr. Haruo Nishimoto, the Director and Chairman of the Target Company, has agreed that he shall, upon completion of the Tender Offer, promptly resign from the office of director of the Target Company.

According to the "Notice of Proposals Regarding the Election of Officers" of the Target Company dated May 13, 2011, the Target Company decided, at the meeting of its board of directors held on May 13, 2011, to submit the following proposals regarding the election of officers to the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting for approval: (i) that four candidates for directors (Mr. Keiji Matsumoto, Mr. Taro Okuno, Mr. Kenzo Kitagawa, and Mr. Tomoki Tamai) and one candidate for corporate auditor (Mr. Hideo Tsuboi) designated by the Target Company be elected as directors and corporate auditor of the Target Company, (ii) that under the condition precedent of the Tender Offer being successful, three candidates for directors (Mr. Masanori Koyama, Mr. Kunio Kurihara, and Mr. Masao Tatsuwaki) and one candidate for corporate auditor (Mr. Tsuyoshi Osato) designated by the Company be elected as directors and corporate auditor of the Target Company, and (iii) that under the condition precedent of the Tender Offer being unsuccessful, Mr. Haruo Nishimoto, the Director and Chairman of the Target Company, be elected as director of the Target Company.

Therefore, provided that the Tender Offer will be completed successfully, Mr. Haruo Nishimoto will not be elected as director of the Target Company at the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting and will resign from the position of director of the Target Company due to the expiration of the term of office at the close of the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting. Furthermore, provided that the Tender Offer will be completed successfully, Mr. Shigeki Taenaka, the external corporate auditor of the Target Company, will resign from office at the close of the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting.

According to the Target Company, the Target Company passed a resolution at a board of directors' meeting held on April 21, 2011 that it maintains dividend forecast of 10 yen per share for the fiscal term ending March 31, 2011 as well as that it will not distribute any interim dividend for the interim period ending September 30, 2011. Incidentally, according to the Target Company, its basic policy has been to limit the frequency of dividend distribution to once per year. Furthermore, according to "Kessan Tanshin (Summary Financial Report) for the Fiscal Year ended March 31, 2011 [Japanese GAAP] (Consolidated)" of the Target Company dated May 13, 2011, the Target Company decided, at the board of directors' meeting held on May 13, 2011, to distribute annual dividend of 10 yen per share for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2011 and not to distribute any interim dividend for the interim period ending September 30 (i.e., the second quarter within the fiscal year ending March 31, 2012).

- (6) Matters concerning the important agreement between the Bidder and the shareholders of the Target Company on the application for the tender offer

(Before amendment)

On April 21, 2011, the Company has concluded the Tender Offer Agreement with the Founding Family Shareholders under which they agree to apply for the Tender Offer with respect to all common shares in the Target Company held by each Founding Family Shareholder (2,467,200 shares in total; Shareholding Percentage: 38.23%). In the Tender Offer Agreement, (i) the Founding Family Shareholders agreed that they shall have the board of directors of the Target Company, at the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting, to submit a proposal regarding the election of officers that the candidates for directors and corporate auditors designated by the Company be elected as the directors and corporate auditors of the Target Company, (ii) when the Tender Offer is completed and such proposal is submitted to the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting, the Founding Family Shareholders agreed that they shall cast their vote in support of the proposal and exercise all other voting rights at the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the instructions by the Company and (iii) Mr. Haruo Nishimoto, the Director and Chairman of the Target Company, agreed that he shall, upon completion of the Tender Offer, promptly resign from the office of director of the Target Company.
