Notice Regarding Revision of Dividend Forecast for FY2020

Canon Marketing Japan Inc. announced today that at a Board of Directors meeting held on October 23, 2020, a decision was made to revise a dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020.

1. Reasons for the revision

Our basic policy on profit sharing is to pay dividends based on the consolidated payout ratio of at least 30%, taking into comprehensive consideration our medium-term income outlook and investment plans, as well as cash flows generated from them.

2. Revisions to dividend forecast
